“A particular pleasure was Nova Scotia-born tenor Marcel d’Entremont as Rodolfo... he is destined for a great operatic career.”

John Terauds, Toronto Star

“As Edgardo, tenor Marcel d’Entremont gave the most polished and stylistic performance of the evening.”

Matthew Timmermans, Opera Canada

Canadian tenor Marcel d’Entremont is celebrated for his powerful voice and dynamic stage presence, earning acclaim across Canada, the United States, Mexico, and Europe. In recital, he has been broadcast nationally by CBC Radio and has appeared at the Festival de Febrero in Ajijic, Mexico. His operatic credits include Don Ottavio (Don Giovanni) with Opéra de Rouen and Opéra Royal de Versailles, the Soldier (Wozzeck) with the Canadian Opera Company, and Rodolfo (La bohème) in Canada’s first live-streamed professional opera with Against the Grain Theatre. On the concert stage, he has performed Elijah with the Toronto Symphony Orchestra, Messiah with Orchestre classique de Montréal, and Serenade for Tenor, Horn and Strings with the Prince Edward Island Symphony. A winner of the Wirth Vocal Prize and the National Music Festival of Canada’s Grand Award, Marcel was also named one of CBC Music’s 30 Hot Classical Musicians Under 30.
